PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Workplace Health and Safety laws within the EU and the UK are complex. With a matrix of overarching EU directives, country-specific laws, and even regional guidelines, the legislative system can present multiple layers of rules that sometimes overlap or conflict.

This certified program will provide you with a comprehensive understanding of the different UK and EU Workplace Health and Safety (WHS) laws, with a particular focus on their implications for businesses operating in both regions. It will shed light on specific WHS frameworks employed in EU member states, such as the German Social Accident Insurance, INAIL in Italy, the French Labor Code, and the pivotal role of the National Institute of Safety and Hygiene at Work (INSST) in Spain, which are invaluable for ensuring legal compliance and maintaining consistent safety standards when operating in various European regions.

Furthermore, it delves into key UK regulations, including the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, Management of Health and Safety Regulations 1999, Workplace (Health, Safety, and Welfare) Regulations 1992, PPE at Work Regulations 1992, Manual Handling Operations Regulations 1992, PUWER, RIDDOR, and COSHH, which underscores the importance of safety in the workplace.

Additionally, this program will guide you in developing, executing, and maintaining workplace safety policies and procedures that align with pertinent legislation. You will acquire the skills needed to conduct thorough workplace safety audits, assessments, and fulfill reporting requirements, whether those arise from regulatory mandates or voluntary commitments. Importantly, you will also learn how to manage workplace hazards, ergonomics, and potential risks effectively while providing robust health and safety accommodations.

Upon successful completion of the program, you will earn the Certification in European Workplace Health and Safety Regulations. This distinguished certification validates your advanced understanding and expertise in navigating the complex regulatory landscape, safeguarding employee well-being, and promoting a culture of safety excellence in compliance with EU and UK standards. Globally recognized, the certification holds lifelong validity, testifying to your expertise and dedication to excellence in the safety industry.
